California Veterinary Medical Association's

Animal Hall of Fame

Celebrates the companion and working animals of California and the veterinarians who care for them. The winning animal is inducted into the Hall of Fame and the care provider receives a plaque.

Nomination criteria:

- The nominated animal must be living and reside in California.
- Nominations are to be made by a veterinarian or a client through a veterinarian (Veterinarian need not be a member of CVMA), by the humane society, SPCA, or other animal care agency in California, or by a constituent veterinary association.
- The owner of the animal has given permission for nomination.
- Nominee must be a living animal of any domesticated species, which through unselfish and courageous accomplishments exemplifies the affection, loyalty, security, and value of the human animal bond.

Nominations must include the following:

- Nomination form (see below)
- 8 x 10 photograph of the nominated animal
- Two or more letters supporting the nomination
- Any published material about the nominee
- The winning animal and its owner must be available for the induction ceremonies and installation program at the annual CVMA meeting.

All submitted material becomes the property of the CVMA and will not be returned.

NOMINATIONS WILL REMAIN IN EFFECT FOR A PERIOD OF THREE YEARS.

Presentation of the award shall be made during CVMA's Installation and Awards Ceremony at the Pacific Veterinary Conference in San Francisco, June, 2014.

Please fill out the form on the next page and submit to CVMA. Nomination form must be received in the CVMA office before December 31, 2013.
