

March 5 – Shelter Management
2:00 pm – 3:45 pm

Be a Great Employer to Build a Great Organization

Successful organizations and small businesses depend on their human assets: employees and volunteers. Tight budgets need not stop managers from setting goals and creating great work environments that promote their achievement. This presentation shares best practices for Human Resources leadership in small businesses and addresses related compliance and risk-management factors.

Peggy Pargoff

Ms. Pargoff is Senior Vice President of ManagEase, a human resource and management services company. She helps companies and organizations achieve their goals through management development and HR process implementation. She is certified as a Professional in Human Resources by SHRM. Ms. Pargoff started her career as a research scientist and then owned market research and technical publishing companies before joining ManagEase. She is a volunteer for a number of nonprofit organizations.